The award of credits in the CII's qualification framework is a privilege and not a right and awards can change over time as qualification frameworks evolve.

Insurance Institute of India students may claim up to a maximum of 210 recognition of prior learning credits for their qualifications awarded by the Insurance Institute of India.

All recognition of prior learning applicants will need to comply with the CII qualification completion rules to achieve a CII qualification, details of which are available on the CII website.

Recognition of Prior Learning requirements

The following link to the scheme rules will provide Insurance Institute of India students with an overview of the standards and application process for individuals: www.cii.co.uk/prior-learning

Insurance Institute of India students should note that:

At its sole discretion the CII reserves the right to make, amend and or withdraw credit awards which are the subject of this application at any time, on due notice as it sees fit and without monetary compensation. Under no circumstances will the CII accept any liability for consequential, indirect or special losses or special damages of any kind arising out of or in any way connected with the awarding or withdrawal of credit awards. The award of credits in the CII's qualification framework is a privilege and not a right and there is no intent to bring legal relations into being or otherwise establish a contractual relationship between the CII and students.

Application process

All recognition of prior learning applicants will need to complete the recognition of prior learning application form which can be found on the CII website: www.cii.co.uk/prior-learning

Applicants will need to provide their certificate and transcript to evidence the qualification. A certified copy will be accepted. Please see the application form for details.

Recognition of prior learning fee is usually payable and Insurance Institute of India qualifications attract a discounted recognition of prior learning fee. Details of the recognition of prior learning fee are available on the CII website.

For further information or if students have any questions, please contact CII Customer Service team on +44 (0)20 8989 8464 or customer.serv@cii.co.uk.

Yours sincerely
