

Insurance Institute of India, COI, Kolkata Classroom Training Session on Marine Cargo Insurance - Underwriting & Claims (CT) - 9 to 10 June, 2026

Program Concept and Objectives:

Marine Cargo Insurance is a challenging line of business due to the international nature of covers and claims, as well as the ever increasing risks and complexities associated with the transport and logistics industry. There are multiple challenges being faced by this line of business, including underlying economic conditions, concentration of cargo, instances of misappropriation of cargo, and changing terms and conditions. Despite some recent positive trends in the contribution of Marine Cargo portfolio to the total premium, the volume of business remains small, and the number of competent professionals who can handle this line of business is getting depleted.

College of Insurance has designed this program to increase the industry's capability to handle this highly technical area of insurance by developing internal expertise to handle the complexities and the challenges in underwriting Marine Cargo insurance and processing claims.
