

Classroom Training Session on Comprehensive Health Insurance (CT) (Program ID: CPG) 15 - 16 December, 2025

Program Concept and Objectives:

The health insurance landscape has changed significantly, especially after Covid-19. There is a sharp rise in demand owing to rising healthcare costs, increased awareness, government initiatives to cover vulnerable sectors and regulatory move to protect policyholders' interests. Addressing these increased demands of the market along with changing consumer behavior is an opportunity as well as challenge for health insurance professionals.

This comprehensive health insurance training program focuses on the insurance industry's regulatory framework as well as compliances, ethical considerations, emerging trends, innovative products, underwriting concepts, the increased role of professionals protecting policyholder interests, and other topics that will assist participants in successfully navigating the ever-changing health insurance market.
