

College of Insurance Insurance Institute of India, Mumbai Classroom Training Session on Motor OD Insurance - Underwriting and Claims (CT-MI UC) (From: 26th to 27th June, 2024)

Program Concept and Objectives:

Motor Own Damage (OD) and Third Party (TP) Insurances form a critical component of the insurance industry providing coverage for damages to insured vehicles and addressing the liabilities due to Property Damage and Personal Injury. Underwriting and Claims processing functions have a direct bearing on the profitability and long-term sustainability of a company. In addition, as Motor insurance deals with a large number of insured, sub-optimal practices in risk assessment, underwriting and claims can easily influence intangibles like customer satisfaction and overall company reputation.

This two-day program aims to provide comprehensive insights into the practices employed by underwriters in the context of the emerging trends in Motor Insurance. The program is designed to empower claims professionals with knowledge and skills for professional management of claims. Participants would be able to gain insights for processing claims with better efficiency and customer-centricity.

Key Takeaways from the Program:

The two-day program is designed to:

- ✚ Discuss coverage under various Motor OD and TP insurances as well as add-on covers.
- ✚ Equip insurance professionals with the knowledge and skills to assess risks effectively.
- ✚ Update the participants on emerging trends in Motor Insurance.
- ✚ Appreciate strategies and techniques used in underwriting and claim processing.
- ✚ Enhance abilities to streamline and improve claims processing.
- ✚ Provide an understanding of the regulatory landscape related to Motor insurance.

Participant Profile:

This two-day program is recommended for Motor insurance professionals in insurance companies, brokers, agents, bancassurance, underwriters, risk assessors, claims adjusters, managers, product developers and others in the motor insurance sector.
