

College of Insurance
Insurance Institute of India, Mumbai
Classroom Training Session on Engineering Insurance –
Operational Policies Program ID- CPG23
(From: 5th – 6th July, 2023)

Relevance of the Program:-

Fire and Engineering insurances have historically been big-ticket businesses for General insurers. In addition to being major avenues for generating insurance premiums, these lines of business have the potential for causing large losses as well. Insurers need to understand not only policy wordings and causes of claims but also use their imagination to visualize the situations which can create such claims. The emergence of newer risk profiles as a result of technological, social and economic developments has also posed newer challenges for insurers.

The College of Insurance has developed a specific course to suit the needs of insurance professionals dealing with the Operational Covers under the Engineering line of business

Program Objectives:-

The program is designed to empower the participants in the following areas:

- Understanding Operational Covers in Engineering Insurance
- Various Types of Operational policies in Engineering Insurance
- Appreciating the issues and challenges in the effective handling of Claims

Participant's Profile:-

The Program is designed for insurance company officers in the Junior/ Middle management level from underwriting and claims departments, engineers, brokers, and loss adjustors who want to work in Property and Engineering lines of business.
