

Virtual Training Session on Liability Insurance: Focus - Event and Film Program ID – CPG33 (On 11th August 2023)

Any event, be it a personal event like a wedding or a big professional event like an exhibition or tournament, needs meticulously planning from start to finish. Shooting a film is also a special event which involves risks of multiple types. In conducting any event, a lot of work is done behind the scenes and over a period of time to ensure that the event is successful and the target population enjoys a great time at the event.

In spite of the best preparations, things can go wrong suddenly and unexpectedly. In the event of a loss, there is a lot of monetary loss for the organizers, in addition to loss of reputation of the organizer. Often, the only way to salvage what is lost is trying to restore the situation back to normalcy as soon and as efficiently as possible, which are costly propositions. Hence, it is important to think in advance about potential problems and plan about financing the costs involved in a contingency. This thinking has made people think seriously on the need of the Event Insurance as a key part of their risk management planning.

College of Insurance aims to improve the professionalism of Liability insurers, by providing them with a strong theoretical framework on Liability Insurance, focusing on the risks of Event and Film cancellation.
